Class Activity 3 – Introduction to CSS

Activity 2 is to create a web page by applying the basic elements of HTML and CSS. Apply the basic CSS properties as color, text-align, font-size, text-shadow, font-family, padding, margin, and first-letter pseudo code to create the following page:

The body should have the following CSS properties: background-color, padding.

The title should have the following CSS properties: color, text-align, font-size, text-shadow, font-family.

The subtitle should have the following CSS properties: color, font-size, text-align, font-family.

first-letter pseudo code

The paragraph should have the following CSS properties: text-align

Horizontal line

<figcaption> should have the following CSS properties: font-size, text-align, color, font-size.

The footer paragraph should have the following CSS properties: font-size, text-align, color.

Images inside the <figure> element should have the following CSS properties: border, width, height, margin